

Ohio SHRM State Council

The Ohio SHRM State Council is dedicated to leading, educating, and inspiring over 15,000 HR professionals in Ohio. Local Chapter Membership and SHRM Membership can help gain access to networking opportunities, career resources, and professional development opportunities. Our membership is made up of volunteer leaders who are elected or appointed to the State Council Board and includes 25 Chapter Presidents of our local SHRM affiliated chapters in Ohio.

The Ohio SHRM State Council is a non-profit organization that is an affiliate of the Society for Human Resource Management and exists to advance human resources by connecting, developing, and engaging HR professionals, affiliated SHRM chapters, and business leaders. Our goal is to inspire, educate, and engage HR and business professionals to make a positive impact in Ohio workplaces.

The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), the world's largest HR professional society with over 300,000+ members in more than 165 countries. SHRM was founded in Berea, Ohio in 1948 by twenty-eight HR professionals and has become the leading provider of resources serving the needs of HR professionals and advancing the practice of human resource management.
